IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Business Expenses Report is required if you file a claim for the Overhead Expenses benefit.

- An overhead expenses claim is related to work stoppage. As a result, you must complete the claim forms for disability benefits. These forms are included in the Claimant's Guide – Disability Insurance.
- Complete all sections of the forms, attach the required documentation, and submit your claim within 90 days of the onset of disability.
- Include the following documents to this form:
 - Claimant's Statement
 - Authorizations (6)
 - Self-Employed Worker's Statement
 - Request for Payment by Direct Deposit and voided cheque
 - Attending Physician's Statement and medical file
- Attach the following documentation to your claim:
 - A copy of supporting documents explaining your expenses for the last month
 - If your business is incorporated, a copy of the latest business financial statements and a copy of Schedule 50 (Shareholder Information) of your business federal income tax return
 - If your business is not incorporated, a copy of the T2125 Form (Statement of Business of Professional Activities) that you provided with your last personal federal income tax return
- Please note that additional supporting documents may be requested during your disability period.
- Send your claim to the appropriate address listed below based on your province of residence.

If you have any questions, contact us before sending your file in order to avoid unnecessary delays. Please note that calls to our claims department are recorded for training, quality control and verification purposes.
