FEDERAL FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT NOTIFICATION

THE FEDERAL FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT REQUIRES THAT YOU BE GIVEN A COPY OF THIS NOTICE

This is to inform you that as part of Canada Life's procedure for processing your insurance application, an investigative consumer report may be prepared whereby information is obtained through personal interviews with your neighbors, friends, or others with whom you are acquainted. This inquiry includes information as to your: character; general reputation; personal characteristics; and mode of living. You have the right to make a written request within a reasonable period of time to receive additional, detailed information about the nature and scope of this investigation.

NOTICE REGARDING THE MEDICAL INFORMATION BUREAU

Information regarding your insurability will be treated as confidential. The Canada Life Assurance Company or our reinsurers may, however, make a brief report thereon to the Medical Information Bureau, a non-profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another Bureau member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, the Bureau, upon request, will supply such company with the information in its file.

Upon receipt of a request from you, the Bureau will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. (Medical information will be disclosed only to your attending physician.) If you question the accuracy of information in the Bureau's file, you may contact the Bureau and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of the Bureau's information office is Post Office Box 105, Essex Station, Boston, Massachusetts 02112, telephone number (617) 426-3660.

The Canada Life Assurance Company or our reinsurers may also release information in our files to other life insurance companies to whom you may apply for life or health insurance, or to whom a claim for benefits may be submitted.

CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY INFORMATION PRACTICES

This notice is provided to give you a brief description of our information practices. If you would like a more detailed description, please write to us at the address shown below.

One of our important objectives is to see that our insurance coverages are priced in a way that is fair to all policyholders. To do this, we need personal information about you and your family members proposed for coverage under your policy. You are the prime source of that information, but we may also obtain information from other sources such as physicians, hospitals, the Medical Information Bureau and consumer reporting agencies. You may request to be interviewed in connection with the preparation of a consumer report and you are entitled to obtain a copy of the report on request.

The information about you which we obtain and keep in our files will not be disclosed to others without your authorization except to the extent necessary to conduct our business. For example, some may be disclosed for research study purposes, but no report of such studies would include identification of individuals.

You have a right of access to information we maintain in our files about you (medical information is normally disclosed only to a physician of your choice) and to request correction of any information you believe to be incorrect. Should you wish further details about your right of access or our information practices, write to: Underwriting Department, The Canada Life Assurance Company, 8515 East Orchard Road, Greenwood Village, Colorado 80111, USA.
